If courses listed in "Exhibit B" change, the parties will review the changes and, if acceptable, a new "Exhibit B" reflecting those changes may be substituted. The parties shall indicate on the new "Exhibit B" the effective date of the changes. If the changes are

ECU does not waive any rights or defenses under the Act or the rights and authority of the Attorney General of the State of North Carolina to represent ECU.
11. Agency shall indemnify and hold ECU, its trustees, officers, employees and agents harmless for any and all claims, loss, liability, demands, or damages, including attorney's fees and court costs, due to the negligent acts of Agency's employees or agents in Agency's performance of this Agreement. This Section 10 shall not apply if the Agency is an agency of the State of North Carolina covered under the Act.

Failure to abide by FERPA may result in the interruption, suspension and/or termination of the relationship with Agency for a period of at least five (5) years from the date of the violation. If Agency experiences a breach relating to this information or if Agency re-discloses this information, Agency shall immediately notify ECU. To the extent allowed by law, Agency shall indemnify ECU for any breach of confidentiality or failure of its responsibilities to protect confidential information. Specifically, these costs may include, but are not limited to, the cost of notification of affected persons as a result of its unauthorized release of ECU data provided to Agency pursuant to this Agreement.

Additionally, each policy shall have an endorsement that the policy shall not be cancelled or materially changed without at least 30 days prior written notice to ECU and an endorsement to the fact that no act or omission of Agency shall invalidate the interest of ECU. The policy shall be issued by an insurance company with an A. M. Best rating of "A" or better, and shall be issued by a company qualified to do business in the State of North Carolina. (23) EXHIBIT A

Academic requirements for admission into the University and specific requirements for admission into the program.

This Agreement governs Pitt County Community College (PCC) students earning the degree of Associate in Applied Science (AAS) Criminal Justice Technology who pursue the Bachelor of Science (BS) in Criminal Justice.

Although AAS degree programs were not designed for transfer, PCC and ECU have worked together to establish an agreement that allows students to finish their AAS degree in Criminal Justice Technology and complete their BS in Criminal Justice at ECU. The purpose of the Agreement is to facilitate professional development of AAS Criminal Justice Technology graduates who wish to continue their education by earning the baccalaureate degree. This Agreement applies to these two programs and no other programs at either institution.

Community College students will be advised that the AAS Criminal Justice Technology was not designed for transfer to a four-year institution. However, with careful planning students can fulfill AAS degree requirements and receive 60 transfer credits towards the baccalaureate degree for ECU.

Contents of this Agreement are based on the ECU Undergraduate Catalog and the PCC catalog.

1. To be eligible for participation in this articulation agreement, students must have successfully completed the AAS in Criminal Justice Technology program meeting the graduation requirements at PCC with a minimum 2.0 GPA.
2. A grade of C or better is needed for courses to transfer from PCC to ECU.
3. The following EXHIBIT B outlines transferable credit from PCC to ECU for general education and for requirements within the AAS Criminal Justice Technology program to the BS Criminal Justice major at ECU.
