- Concurrent admission and continued enrollment for each school (JCC and ECU) will be ensured for aRIBN student each year by maintaining enrollment status at “home school” following the aRIBN program of study including one course per semester at ECU.
- If a student is accepted into the aRIBN program of study, he or she must maintain a minimum grade of C in all courses. A withdrawal or grade below a C from any course will prohibit progression in the aRIBN program of study.
- Upon successful completion of the first two years as a concurrent enrolled student and passing the NCLEX-RN exam, students will matriculate to ECU for the completion of the aRIBN program of study.
